CAMPUS LIFE

A TIME FOR:

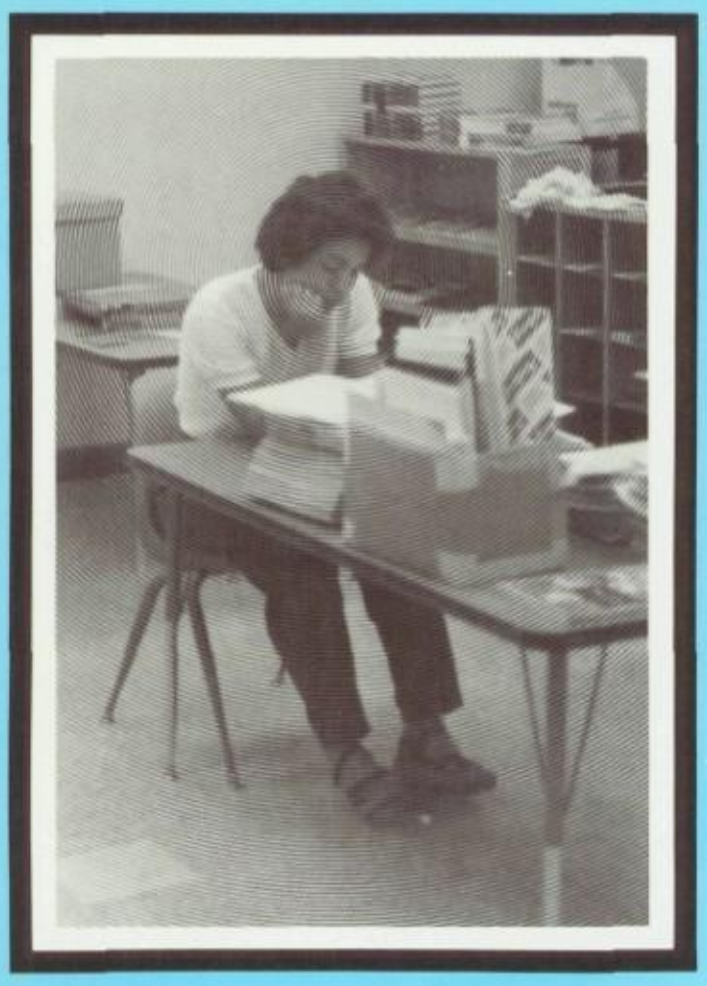
Cheering

Leisure

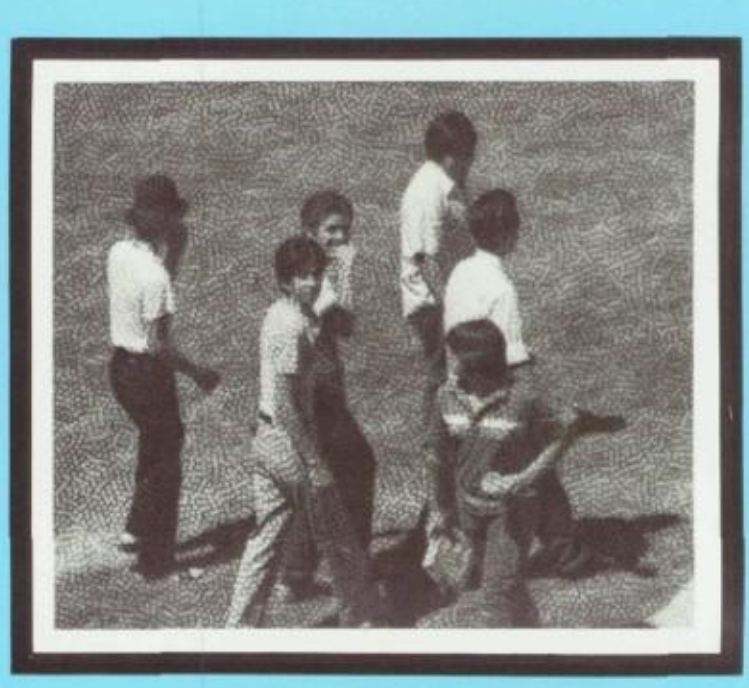
Getting acquainted

Learning

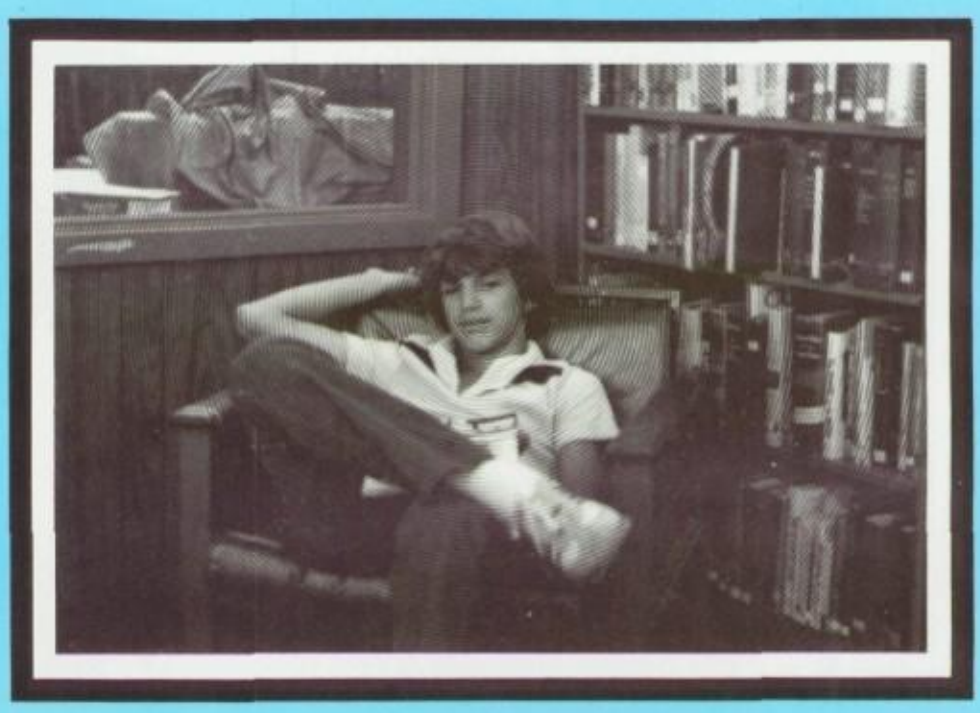
Spirit



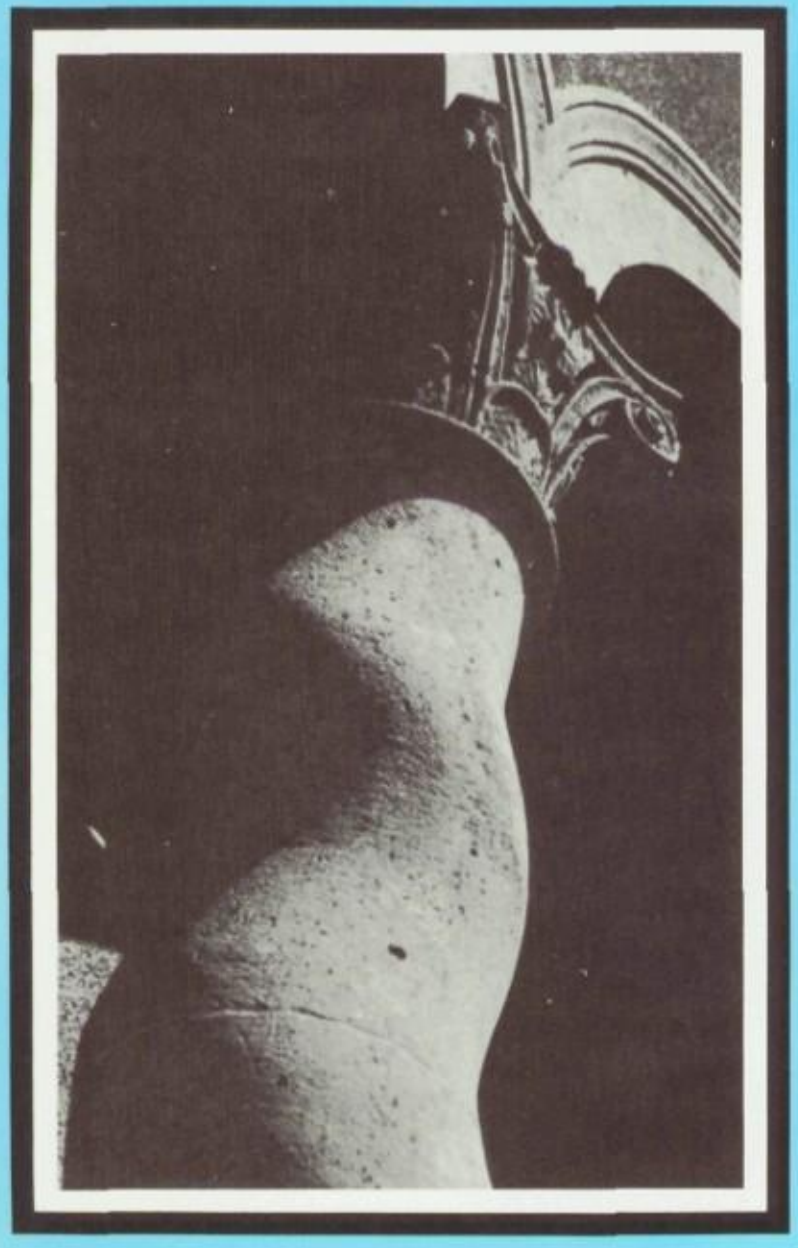
A time for studying



A time for friends



A time for thinking



A time for living

There is a time for everything:
A time to be born, a time to die,
A time to plant;
A time to harvest;
A time to kill;
A time to heal;
A time to destroy;
A time to build;
A time to cry;
A time to laugh;
A time to greive;
A time to dance;
A time for scattering stones;
A time for gathering stones;
A time to hug;
A time not to hug;
A time to find;
A time to lose;
A time for keeping;
A time for throwing away;
A time to tear;
A time to repair;
A time to be quiet;
A time to speak up;
A time for loving;
A time for hating;
A time for war;
A time for peace.

Ecc. 3:1-8

ALWAYS REMEMBER

Pondering thoughts, dreaming dreams,
Going to dances, devising schemes.
Planning parties, taking tests,
Always remember, never forget.

Schooldays and teenage nights,
Getting cars, and motorbikes.
Watching T.V., drive-in-shows,
Where's the time gone? No one knows.

Chasing boys and running wild;
Your mom still treats you like a child.
Home by ten, asleep by eleven,
Up in the morning for school at seven.

Graduation comes at last;
We reminisce about the past.
Our highschool days have been the best,
Always remember, never forget.

Something Sacred

The Soul,
"It is that part of us which thinks and loves and hopes," it is the genuine heart of the body locked in the human mind.

And
the soul has a door which every teacher hopes to unlock and bestow within its walls the treasures of eternal growth.

There is a key,
the learning key that each teacher prods with, perserveres with and patiently waits with.

Then
the miracle happens,
The key fits and light triumphantly enters in, to awaken the soul from a deep, dark slumber.

The earth,
radiating a celestial spirit, is renewed,
and the people whisper in reverent awe,
"There must be something sacred about learning."

Reflections Of Time

A day as a thousand years . . .
a thousand years as a day.
And in His time emerges a creation—organized matter called man.
Complex, intelligent,
a balance of systems created into an organism higher than all others—
a reflection of the Maker Himself.
A sequence of time:
conception, gestation, birth, growth . . .
and as hours and years pass by we develop a philosophy of life;
a life that we live out—performed beliefs—developed by how we think thoughts built on what we've heard and by what we've seen.
We grow older becoming more like what we are with each passing minute.
Reflections of time . . .
that is what we are.
We reflect ourselves to the universe.
We reflect where we have been what we are and where we are going.
Our life:
our time on earth
a time very important the quality of this life the philosophy we develop the way we live
what we choose to think what we choose to see what we choose to hear the reflections we mirror to others as they see through our transparency.
This life,
however long or short it may be,
determines our eternity . . .
forever—an existance through infinite time
Who am I?
Where did I come from?
Why am I here?
Where am I going?
How can I get there?
Hopefully, we will all find out . . .
in time.

Ron Hildreth

Mitch, I don't know what to say, but I'll see ya' next year.
